

*Where life is lived simply,
together, in nature.*

KAVA is a Youth Village where people gather in nature, share everyday life and explore different ways of living.

Through retreats, workshops, gatherings and other experiences – we learn, create, rest, play and reconnect.

Not just a place to stay. A place to spend time.

Where every space invites a different kind of moment.

And the little things become part of the experience.

*It's not just what you do here.
It's how the days begin to feel.*

They're the conversations after dinner.

The afternoon nap.

The book you finally finish.

The swing you sit on for "five minutes."

The walk that takes an hour.

Every experience at KAVA is rooted in these ideas.

Different formats. Same intention.

Gather

People around something that matters.

Learn

Something new from someone else.

Make

Something with your hands or your mind.

Play

Move, explore and stay curious.

Nature

Reconnect with the natural world.

Rest

Make space for quiet, reflection and rest.

The Question

A few years ago, while spending time on a farm,
I experienced a way of life I'd never known before.

Ordinary days felt fuller and I found myself feeling more connected – to the place, the people, and myself.

It left me wondering:
Why don't more people my age live like this?

I realised:
Most people never get the opportunity to experience
this way of living.

So, I decided to build KAVA - The Youth Village.

-Kuhu Kalode

Maybe you're not looking for a getaway.

*Maybe you're looking for a different way to live.
Just for a few days.*

If something here resonated with you,
there's a place for you at KAVA.

Whether you're joining an experience, hosting one,
or simply curious, we'd love to welcome you.

Tell us a little about yourself, and we'll take it from there.
Start Here